Montréal en Histoires - Cité Mémoire

History comes to life with Cité Mémoire, an art installation that shines light on the city's illustrious past. It is the largest projection circuit in the world. 27 astonishing scenes are projected on walls, in alleys, on the ground and on trees. This expansive projection circuit features 100 points of interest and 32 augmented reality experiences. In a poetic, dreamlike and sometime playful manner, a medley of characters offer first-hand accounts of how the city has evolved over the course of history. Download the free "Montréal en Histoires" mobile app available in four languages. Guided tours also available
